Partnership to accelerate Enterprise Innovation

L&T Infotech Partners with Tricentis to leverage Tosca Testsuite

Mumbai, February 21, 2014: L&T Infotech, a global provider of information technology services and solutions; and a wholly-owned subsidiary of the USD 14 billion Larsen & Toubro, has partnered with Tricentis, a global leader in enterprise software testing solutions, to become an Implementation Partner for Tricentis' Tosca Testsuite.

The agreement was signed by Dr. Mukesh Aghi, Chief Executive, Services Cluster, L&T Infotech; and Mr. Thomas Hadorn, Managing Director, Tricentis.

“We are excited about this strategic partnership with Tricentis. By leveraging Tricentis product suite, L&T Infotech will be able to address the complex challenges and deliver innovative solutions to our clients resulting in enhanced value. This partnership will further enable our testing teams to deliver improved time to market and greater cost efficiency to our clients,” said Dr. Aghi.

Mr. Sandeep Johri, CEO, Tricentis, said, “This partnership will extend the Tricentis advantage to top L&T Infotech clients, allowing them to successfully harness the power of software to accelerate business innovation, optimize cost & efficiencies, and reduce business-related risks.”
