

Case Study

Archival of Logistic & Finance Data for Leading Semiconductor Manufacturer

Client

Leading Semiconductor Manufacturer.

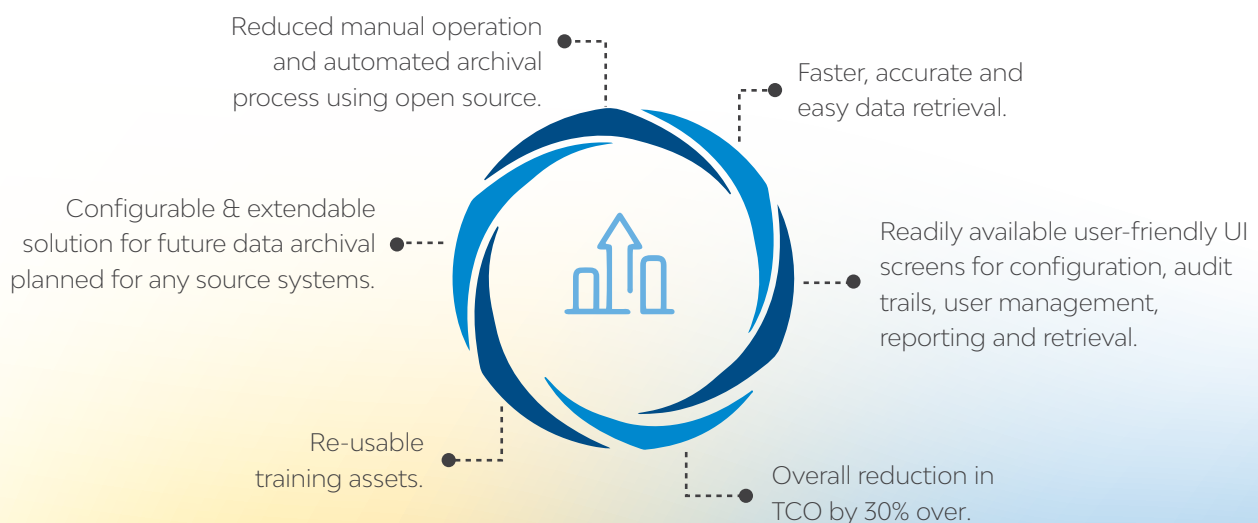

Challenges

As a result of merger of two Semiconductor Manufacturers, several programs were launched for IT Portfolio rationalization. Many applications being decommissioned, required important information to be retained for operational or regulatory compliance needs. These companies needed a solution for long term retention of critical business data.

LTIMindtree Solution

Deployed LTI proprietary BigArch™ tool developed by AIM Innovation Labs for data archival and retrieval.
