Transformation of Sourcing & Contract Management Platform for largest Consumer Product Goods Conglomerate

Client

One of the largest Consumer Product Goods conglomerate headquartered in USA. It primarily specializes in a wide range of cleaning agents and personal care and hygienics products. Its product portfolio also expands in foods, snacks and beverages employing more than 90,000 employees worldwide.

Challenges

- Enterprise-wide Sourcing and Contract Management Platform to be re-hosted.
- Platform stability and storage enhancement.
- Lift-Shift the solution to Azure (90%), with minor functional and user interface enhancement add to scope (10%).

LTI Solution

- Microservices-based architecture on Docker design
- Driving business value for sourcing through integration of S2P transformation
- Cloud Native app development (Responsive web app delivered for mobile and desktop form factors) on Azure PaaS.
- To reduce database space, files and attachments are stored using file server storage approach vs database storage (blob data) server approach.
- "Separation of concern" design philosophy and implemented "Pay-as-you-go" cloud price model.
- Tools & Technology Used: Azure, Angular JS, Bootstrap, HTML, ASP.NET

Business Benefits Delivered

- 30% increase in task completion rates
- 45% reduction in exception generation and infrastructure costs
- 20% increase in operational efficiency
