

Case Study

Cost-effective, CCPA Regulatory Solution for US-based Publishing House

Client

The client is the largest magazine fulfilment house in North America, with 160+ million subscribers through 200+ publishers. The organization is one of the biggest data consumers in the publishing world.

Challenges

- ✓ Create a centralized portal for consumers and publishers to exercise CCPA requests from multiple channels such as apps, and websites.
- ✓ Develop a scalable and automated system to fulfil CCPA requests within SLAs from 200+ publishers, managing 1,100+ brands.
- ✓ Develop and implement a privacy management system with fully automated privacy operations for regulatory compliance.

LTIMindtree Solution

Developed a portal for CCPA request intake and fulfillment from multiple channels.

Automated request processing, consolidation of response output files, maintaining request statuses and audits.

Auto-assisted data anonymization for deletion requests.

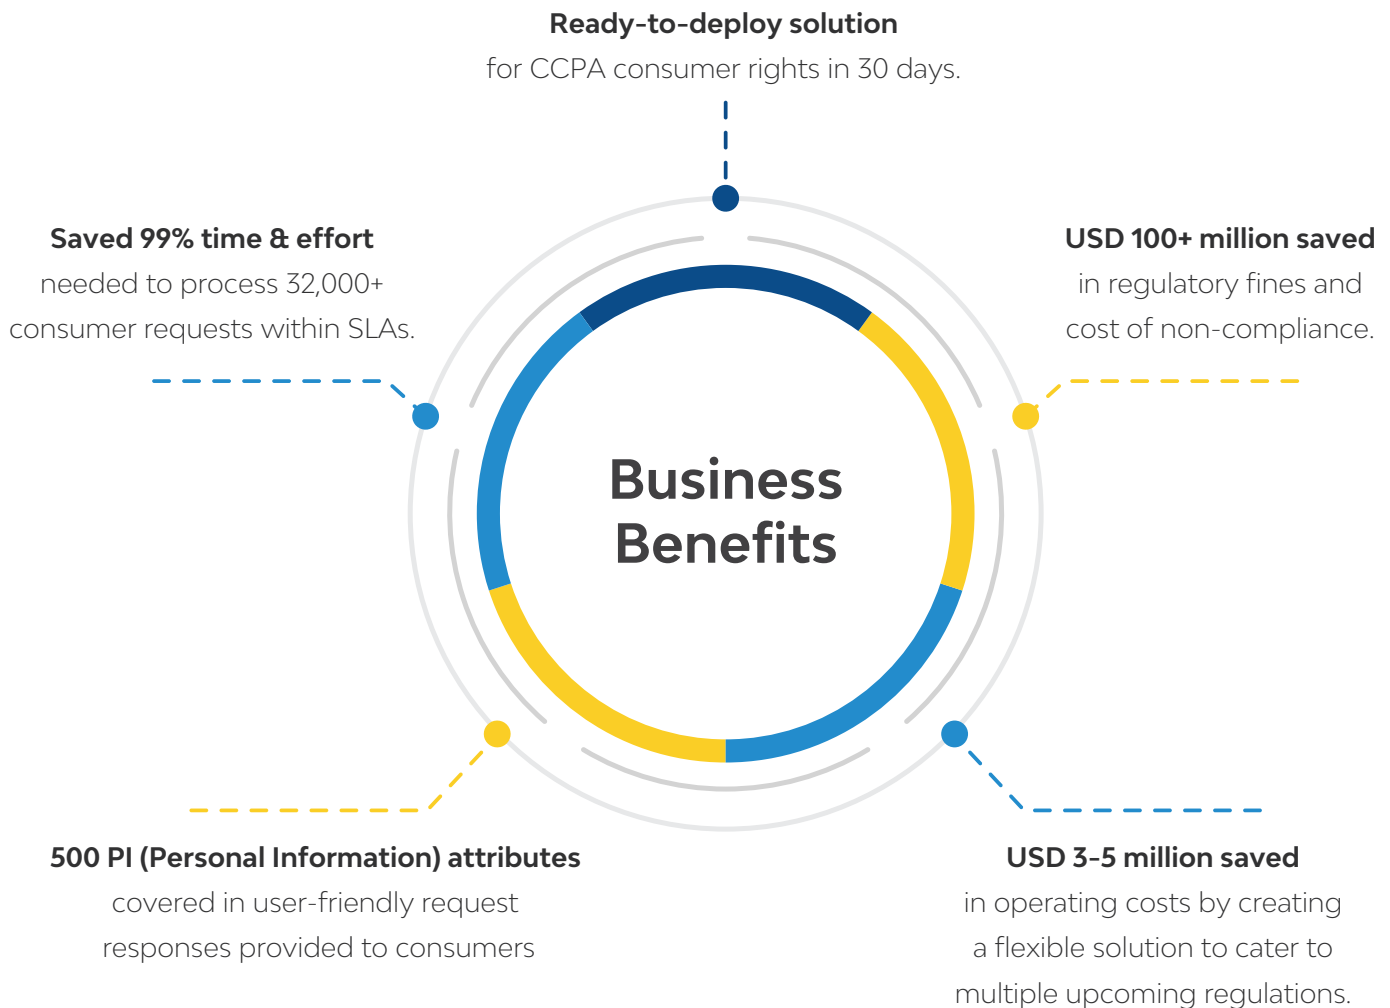

Enabled reporting & insights on CCPA request distribution by standard parameters.

Arranged 20+ APIs and 10+ interfaces to integrate with various third parties, managing consumer-facing digital, front-end, and internal applications.

Enabled request verification & authentication using OpenAM and other third-party integration tools.

Created custom features for excel based request uploads, user notification and task alerts.
