

Case Study

Enabling Seamless Transition and Integration of Manufacturing Sites in M&A for US-Based Medical Device Manufacturer

Client

The client is an American multinational medical device, pharmaceutical, and consumer packaged goods manufacturing company.

Our Experience

LTIMindtree, with its expertise in moving manufacturing sites in and out of the network during acquisition/divestiture, enabled seamless integration of major business functions and IT systems, providing full visibility of the process to the stakeholders through real-time interactive communication channels.

Challenges

- ✓ Stakeholder non-alignment during addition/removal of manufacturing sites due to merger/acquisition or divesture
- ✓ Overlapping of IT systems/applications in the merged organizations
- ✓ No synergy across the units due to lack of uniformity
- ✓ No secure network barrier to ensure data security during the transition
- ✓ Delays in asset hierarchy mapping for the newly added hardware, leading to a longer work completion cycle

LTIMindtree Solution

- ✓ Rationalized application portfolios of IT organization to reduce overlap in the merged units
- ✓ Implemented M&A playbook for seamless addition/removal of manufacturing sites, which included all areas across infra, application, data, and operations
- ✓ Automated asset hierarchy mapping process and integrated major business functions across the new ecosystem
- ✓ Provided complete visibility of operations during the integration process via user dashboards and knowledge-sharing portals ensuring 24x7 uninterrupted communication
- ✓ Ensured system compliance during integration/separation and data management

Business Benefits

Zero schedule and cost variance during the transition due to maximum visibility.

Comprehensive site coverage for support model during acquisition/divestiture.

Improved productivity with re-usable merger/convey system/app templates.
