LTIMindtree's Lightweight Solution to Streamline the Receipt and Labeling Process

Introduction

Many businesses manually read receipts and label packaged goods using Oracle SaaS. Our innovative lightweight solution simplifies this process. By automating the reading of receipts and generating labels based on various criteria, our solution saves time, reduces errors, and increases efficiency. Businesses can minimize complex manual labor with the added convenience of on-demand label printing directly from premises.

Business Problem

The distribution industry faces the challenge of generating QR codes when receiving materials and packaging items for shipment. In the absence of label printing capabilities during SCM processes, businesses are forced to rely on expensive third-party solutions for on-demand label printing. This incurs additional costs and introduces complexities, making the process less efficient and more prone to errors. Businesses need a solution that integrates seamlessly with Oracle and streamlines label printing.

Our Solution

- LTIMindtree's cloud-based hybrid solution is designed to simplify the printing and reading of QR codes. It includes a user-friendly Android-based application for reading labels and is readily compatible with Oracle cloud systems.
- Minimizes capital expenditures for all development aspects by using open-source technologies and allows easy generation of labels based on various criteria, including item category, and order, customer or supplier type.
- Enables personalized and tailored labels to meet your specific needs. By streamlining the process of generating and printing QR codes, our solution saves time and reduces the risk of errors.
- Eliminates the need for costly third-party solutions, simplifying the label printing process by integrating with Oracle cloud systems.
