APi Chubb—A Case of Accelerating Business Outcome After Demerging and Migrating JD Edwards to Oracle Cloud

Client overview

The client is a global organization specializing in fire and security business, and a manufacturing conglomerate divested the client to API group. While migrating the IT estate, it was critical to maintain data integrity and follow the contracted timeline.

Challenges

The client's timeline was rigid and non-negotiable due to a Transitional Service Agreement (TSA) with the seller. It was imperative to maintain concurrency with all dependent IT systems and applications while minimizing business disruption. Furthermore, replicating data across database platforms posed a critical challenge.

LTIMindtree solution

- Used Oracle Cloud Infrastructure (OCI) as a scalable and agile platform to support the program.
- Streamlined and sequenced 13 business units to optimize effort and time.
- Migrated over 12TB of data across platforms from on-premises to the cloud.
- Application code was standardized and updated to the latest version along with the upgradation of bolt on tools and third-party applications.
- Planned and executed the program with zero business disruption.
