Revitalizing Trophy Foods Inc.'s Operations with Oracle Cloud Migration

About the client

Trophy Foods Inc. of Canada is known for producing a wide variety of high-quality snacks, including nuts, dried fruits, confectionery, and ready-to-eat granolas. They migrated their ERP estate to the Oracle Cloud platform and embarked on a digital journey to shape the future.

Challenges

Identifying a scalable and adaptable industry standard platform for ERP, peripheral applications, and future enhancements
Deliver tangible business benefits through technical modernization

Execute the transformation project without any business disruption

LTIMindtree solution

Scalability and adaptability

- Migrated the ERP estate to Oracle Cloud Infrastructure to save cost
- Upgraded base JD Edwards ERP to version 9.2 [ASU UN6 with 141 ESUs] to enable customer movement to latest tool release
- Upgraded peripheral systems to be compliant with the base ERP version
- Upgraded tools for conversion of 32-bit to 64-bit to accommodate future enhancements released by the Oracle

Approach taken

- There was 'zero' business downtime required to go live.
- From inception to go-live, the project duration was five months.
- Business SMEs were engaged in the project only for seven weeks during the test phases.

More than a 90% reduction in time taken for material requirement planning, thereby accelerating the actual production turnaround time

Increased automation in business processes with modern JDE Orchestrator

Business benefits

More than a 30% increase in time available for order processing

Multifold improvement in analytical capability with the availability of One View Reporting

Client testimonial

Trophy and LTIMindtree have completed what looks to be a flawless JDE upgrade, and for that, I say thanks to all. JD Edwards and Oracle Cloud enabled us to embrace the future confidently to meet the system needs of our growing company.
